

Floralyn George UK tour & album release New EP 'When Light Falls Asleep' out July 30

Tour Dates

Friday September 1 - Oxford - O2 academy

Saturday September 2 - Bristol - Thekla

Wednesday September 6 - Swindon - Swindon Arts Centre

Thursday September 7 - Newbury - Arlington Arts Centre

Friday September 8 - London - St Moritz Club

Floralyn George is a 21 year old Alternative, Electro pop Singer/Songwriter, Harpist, Model based in the UK. Born into a family of musicians, she has been singing and playing the harp for more than 10 years. She has been performing in the United Kingdom, Macau, Hong Kong, Bulgaria, Serbia, Greece and Egypt. Her Debut EP "When light falls asleep" embodies her unique sound, intertwined the exceptional range and dynamics of her voice with an enchanting tone of her harp playing lays down on the diverse texture of pop-rock, electro, dance and ambient. The EP will be released on the 30 of July and comes out with the announcement for her first UK Tour coming in September 2017.

"The main purpose of this tour is to raise funds for a variety of causes and charities. We want to contribute to their fundraising efforts and help people with health problems, as well as environmental issues and endangered species. The charities we are supporting are British Heart Foundation, Macmillan Cancer Support, Blue Cross, Marie Curie, Elephant Family and The Yearley Trust. I believe that music is a healer and it brings people together. It has the power to move our emotions and sometimes change our lives. I also believe that by doing a good deed brings deep personal satisfaction. Let's get involved and start changing lives together." - Floralyn George

"This is not what I was expecting! I have never heard someone singing and playing the harp presented in this way. Her voice is brilliant!" - Will Bigs, Co-owner of Challow Park Studios and former Sound Engineer of Glastonbury Festival

"An incredible talent!" - Tina Burdett, Fundraising Manager for the Blue Cross

<http://floralyngeorge.com/shows.html>

More info: george@pomonauk.co.uk